

The Parable of the Unmerciful Servant

(Matthew 18:21-35)

1. To whom did Jesus speak this parable, and in what context? (v1,12-20) _____
 2. Who do the following represent?
- The king _____ - The first slave _____ - The fellow-slave _____
 3. How much did each owe in terms of monetary value and how long would it have taken each to pay off their debt?
- The first slave (v24) _____
- The fellow-slave (v28) _____
 4. What was the first slave's punishment at the end, and why? (v32-33) _____
 5. How do you apply this parable to your own life? _____

-
-

The Parable of the Unmerciful Servant

(Matthew 18:21-35)

1. To whom did Jesus speak this parable, and in what context? (v1,12-20) _____
 2. Who do the following represent?
- The king _____ - The first slave _____ - The fellow-slave _____
 3. How much did each owe in terms of monetary value and how long would it have taken each to pay off their debt?
- The first slave (v24) _____
- The fellow-slave (v28) _____
 4. What was the first slave's punishment at the end, and why? (v32-33) _____
 5. How do you apply this parable to your own life? _____

-
-

The Parable of the Unmerciful Servant

(Matthew 18:21-35)

1. To whom did Jesus speak this parable, and in what context? (v1,12-20) _____
 2. Who do the following represent?
- The king _____ - The first slave _____ - The fellow-slave _____
 3. How much did each owe in terms of monetary value and how long would it have taken each to pay off their debt?
- The first slave (v24) _____
- The fellow-slave (v28) _____
 4. What was the first slave's punishment at the end, and why? (v32-33) _____
 5. How do you apply this parable to your own life? _____

-
-