

Lessons from the Story of Job

Zophar's First Discourse (Job 11-12)

- 1. In verses 1-3, what are some things that Zophar accuses Job of being?*
- 2. How do you think Job must have felt after Zophar told him, "God is doubtlessly punishing you far less than you deserve!" (11:6)*
- 3. Why do we as Christians find it so easy to condemn someone when they are facing a trial, when what they really need is encouragement?*
- 4. How do we "speak the truth in love"? (Ephesians 4:15)*
- 5. How would you best describe Job's response to Zophar?*
- 6. What should a Christian's response be when falsely accused?*
- 7. What examples does Job give us of God's omnipotence in chapter 12?*
