"Therefore a strong people will glorify You"

Isaiah 25

1. Compare Revelation 7:9-17 with Isaiah 25. What do these two passages have in common?
2. When these people see God's judgment's and blessings coming upon the earth and upon men and women, does anything about their response (in its quality or make up) stand out to you as an example for us today?
3. How does the response of God's people in v9 relate to what the Lord does in verses v6-8?
4. Moab is mentioned in v10. Look back to 16:6 to remember what is so displeasing to God about Moab. What applications do you see the city of Moab has for us today?
"If everybody listened to me, myself included, could suddenly have a baptism of clear, cheerful belief that God

"If everybody listened to me, myself included, could suddenly have a baptism of clear, cheerful belief that God wanted me and that He wanted me to worship Him and that God wanted me to pray and admire Him and praise Him it would transform us and change us overnight into the most happy and radiant people on the North American continent." - A.W. Tozer