

The Redemption and Grace of the People of God

Isaiah 54:1 – 56:8

1. In v1, Isaiah speaks of a childless and desolate women and also a woman who lives with her husband. Who are these women?
2. In v7-8 it speaks of God abandoning us for a brief moment. What are your thoughts on these verses?
3. List some promises of God from chapter 54 that really minister grace to your heart.
4. In the first part of Chapter 55 we see the invitation is clear, the offer has been made, and everything is available, but there are still things we must be willing to do. What are those things?
5. In 55:3-4 we see God using David as an example of His unfailing love and power. Why do you think God chose David to be an example of a leader among the nations?
