

Jesus Christ The Word of God

'In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God' – John 1:1

Jesus Christ is the fullness of God's Word which became flesh (John 1:14).

Consider the beginnings mentioned in John 1:1 and Genesis 1:1

- Jesus Christ existed before all things. Indeed everything, including the world, was created by Him (John 1:3; Hebrews 11:3; Colossians 1:16)

The written word of God (the Bible) vs. The Word Himself (Jesus)

- God's Word (Jesus) extends beyond that which is written for us (the Bible)-John 20:30 and John 21:25
- The Bible remains our primary foundation, with the revelation of the Holy Spirit, in knowing who the true God is (John 20:31)

The dangers of knowing the written word and not the Word Himself (John 5:39-40)

- The primary end of reading the Bible, every Bible study, etc, is to see and know God's will in Jesus Christ. If Jesus is not revealed to us (in the Old and New Testaments) our look into the Bible is incomplete.

Jesus Christ is the Word of God

- By Him were all things made
- He is the embodiment of the unseen Word of God, and God Himself, who became flesh
- This Word endures forever (1 Peter 1: 25)

Jesus Christ only is our message. Jesus Christ only is the One we seek in looking at the Bible. Jesus Christ only is the one we share when we talk of the Bible. Jesus Christ only is the word of life we give to men in a dying world. Jesus Christ, the Word of God, is indeed our life (Deuteronomy 32:47)

www.rlcchurch.org

(970) 613-9718

info@rlcchurch.org